Most wanted list nets one, new fugitive added

► Wanted criminal found to be in prison for life... for first degree murder

by Cheryll Ruley
Staff Writer

Less than two weeks after launching its Ten Most Wanted list at web site www.crawfordsheriff.org, the Crawford County Sheriff's Office announced one fugitive has been located.

Escaping the death penalty, William Ray Adkins, age 54, was found to be serving out a "mercy" life sentence for first degree murder at the Mt. Olive Correctional Center in West Virginia.

According to Martha Sparks, webmaster of the Internet site www.mywvmountain.com, which archives the synopses of local news stories in West Virginia, Adkins was a resident of Stone Branch, WV after returning from Michigan. He pled not guilty to the murder of Anthony Shawn Dingess for reasons of self defense at his trial which began March 29, 2000.

Deputies' Christmas trees a big hit with community

Recently retired Crawford County Sheriff's Deputy Tom Coors and Corrections Officer Paul Hill stand with a few unsold trees left on their association's lot in front of KMart earlier this week. Coors said this past weekend saw the best sales ever and Hill said the community's support has been terrific, as usual. As of Monday at 12 noon, only 10 trees remained of the over 180 purchased by the association. Although scheduled to sell trees through December 21, the deputies do not believe supplies will last that long. Proceeds from the tree lot go to help pay for activities throughout the year for area youth. For more, see Page 3A.

Drunk drivers beware: focus is now on you!

Local law enforcement agencies are continuing their combined holiday campaign to help prevent traffic deaths and injuries.

Over the past few weeks, the "Click It or Ticket" campaign has focused on those not wearing their safety belts. Over 100 tickets were issued. The next issue to be addressed is drinking and driving.

Nearly 40 percent of fatal crashes on Michigan roads are alcohol-related. As part of the statewide "You Drink & Drive. You Lose." campaign, the Michigan State Police, Crawford County Sheriff's Office and the Grayling City Police Department are working to reduce the number of alcohol-related traffic crashes on roadways in Crawford County.

"Part of our message," said Sheriff Kirk Wakefield, "is to plan ahead before you drink."

Wakefield, along with Grayling Police Chief Karl Schreiner and Michigan State Police Houghton Lake Post Commander Lt. Dave Mertz are urging motorists to appoint a sober, non-drinking "designated driver" to help make sure everyone arrives home safely.

They also suggest making prior arrangements to stay the night somewhere instead of driving home, or call someone for a ride.

City of Grayling increases water, sewer rates

► Average city water/sewer bill to go up $5 per quarter (three months)

by Caleb Casey
Staff Writer

Acting on the advice of city auditors and a recommendation by the city manager, the Grayling City Council voted 4-1 last week to increase city water and sewer rates by about five percent.

The city recently went through a routine audit of its finances. Mayor Dave Wyman said the audit went well and revealed very few problems, but the auditors did note that the city's water and sewer fund is still operating at a deficit.

The city's water and sewer fund, which by law is supposed to be self-supporting through user fees, has not been taking in enough money to cover expenses related to water and sewer operation.

"The auditors have been telling us we need at least an inflationary increase every year," City Manager Allen Lowe said.

Lowe provided the council with a set of recommendations with regard to the water and sewer fund.

The council approved the recommendations with a 4-1 vote.

Councilman Roger Moshier voted "no."

The average water/sewer bill in the city is $100 per quarter (three months), City Clerk Michele Moshier said. The approved changes will result in an increase of about $5 per quarter, Moshier said.

Wyman said the increase in rates will generate about $16,000 per year - not enough for the water and sewer fund to break even. "The fund is losing more than that," Lowe said.

The council has been hesitant to raise water and sewer rates in the last few years. The city installed new meters, which at first did increase revenues by providing the city with more accurate readings. Revenues evened out after a few billing cycles due to increased water conservation by city residents, city officials said.

This year, the city had some leak detection work done and managed to find and plug a few large leaks, Lowe said. "That doesn't cut much money though," he said.

The biggest cost related to the water and sewer operation is the personnel needed to run and maintain the system, Lowe said.

Also this year, the city implemented a "shut off" policy in an effort to get delinquent water and sewer users to pay their bills.

There's one more chance to see Santa Claus!

Many local children had breakfast with Santa and Mrs. Claus on December 7 at Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church, sponsored by the Grayling Promotional Association. There is one more chance for kids to tell Santa what is on their lists and that's this Friday, December 20, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Frederic Fire Hall in Frederic. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy some hot cocoa and visit with the jolly old elf before he returns to the North Pole to get ready for Christmas. Local man fined over $1,000 for giving alcohol to young teens

by Cheryll Ruley
Staff Writer

The man accused of providing alcohol to a group of young teens last summer has pled guilty to the charge, avoiding a jury trial originally scheduled next March.

On November 19, Matthew Michael Wakeley, age 20 of Grayling, was sentenced to the maximum penalty allowed by state law. He was ordered to pay $1,280 in fines and court costs or spend 60 days in jail by 83rd District Court Judge John G. Hunter.

He was also placed on six months probation.

Wakeley was 19 years old at the time he met up with a group of teens, ranging in age from 14 to 15 years old, hanging out in the Grayling city park the afternoon of July 23.

One 14-year old girl was hospitalized for alcohol poisoning when she drank more than she could handle.

Being under the legal drinking age of 21, no information has been released by the Grayling City Police regarding how Wakeley obtained the alcohol he shared with the teens.

Victims of abuse, crime have new tool in court

by Cheryl Ruley
Staff Writer

For years in Crawford County, victims of domestic violence, sexual assault or abuse, and other crimes have had to face the stares of the accused and their supporters when testifying in a criminal case. A new tool being used by the Victim Rights Advocate's office may lessen the discomfort of taking the stand.

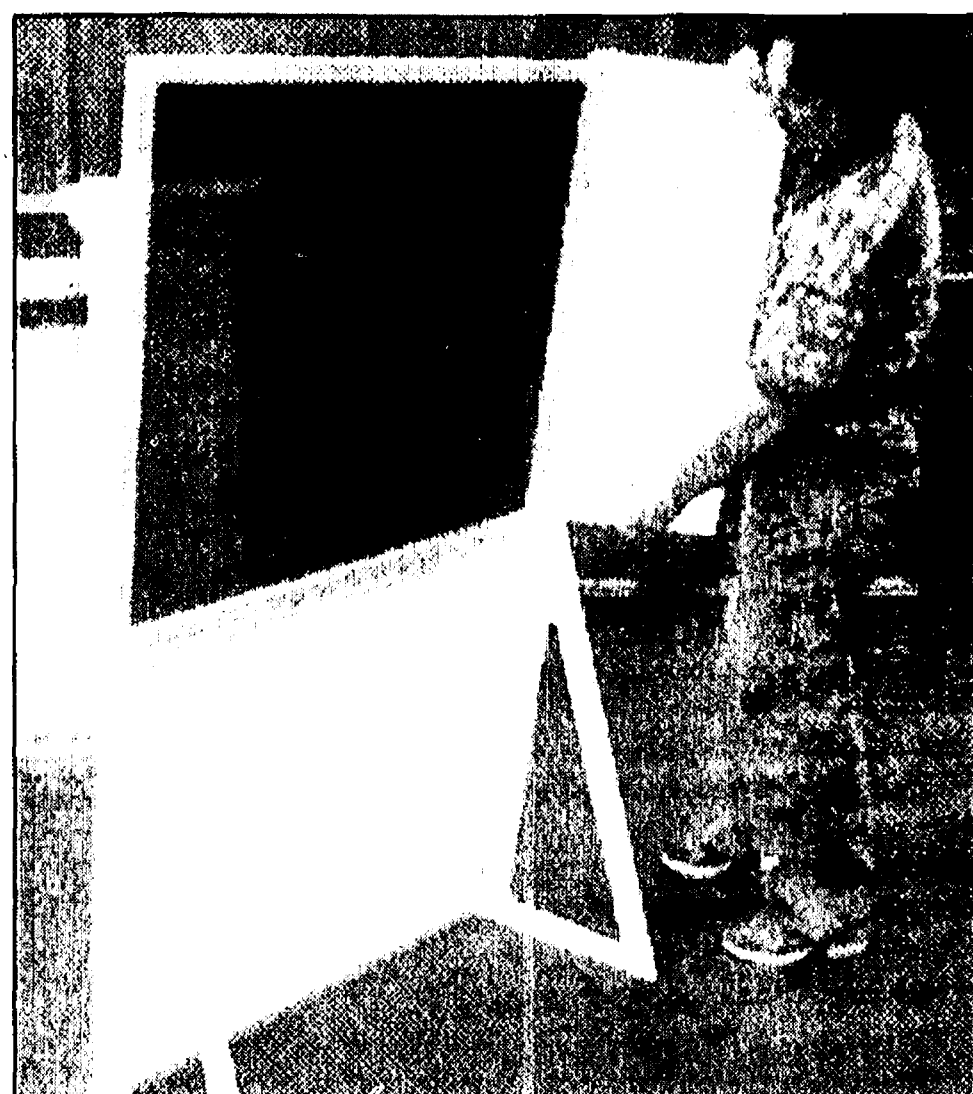

While it is seldom easy to testify in court under any circumstances, giving testimony against an assailant can be especially difficult, said Sharon Huss, Crawford County's Victim Rights Advocate.

The majority of the cases referred to Huss' office concern domestic violence and sexual assault, where the victim knows his or her assailant. Victims in these cases may have a difficult time facing someone they know and recounting the frightening details of the crime.

Huss is responsible for helping people through the shock and emotional upheaval following a crime and to help them understand the legal process of a criminal case in the local courts.

She said she has to be a good listener and "a shoulder to cry on" for the vast majority of her clients who are plunged into the confusing world of the criminal justice system, most for the first time and due to no fault of their own.

Because victims are very often emotionally fragile, Huss has spent about $1,000 of her state grant-funded budget to purchase a witness screen to shield victims from uncomfortable looks in the courtroom.

The Crawford County Victim Rights Advocate's office is now using a witness screen in court cases where crime victims and witnesses may be too frightened to testify face to face with the accused.

The portable screen works similar to a two-way mirror. The victim or witness sits on the stand, separated by the screen from the defendant and his or her supporters, usually seated behind the defendant and his or her attorney. The defendant, who has the right to face his or her accuser, is able to see the witness or victim, but the victim or witness is unable to see the face of the defendant or his or her supporters, thus creating a less stressful situation during testimony.

The screen is especially helpful, Huss said, when a child must testify against an abusive parent or other adult in their household or family -- especially those who have suffered sexual abuse. She said child victims are often more vulnerable than adult victims to persuasive or threatening looks from the abuser. The screen eliminates visual intimidation during testimony.

Huss said the only way to decrease or stop the instances of abuse is to find ways for victims to complete the process of bringing abusers and assailants to justice. Once a victim brings the problem to the attention of law enforcement, he or she must be willing to continue through perhaps months of court hearings and unpleasant testimony -- and not give up or back down.

"The abuser or criminal needs to know the victim is serious about stopping the abuse or convicting the person who has made a violation against them, and that they are not afraid to speak up," said Huss.

The screen has already proven its worth in a recent sexual abuse case involving a local family, she said, allowing the victims to testify without being forced to look at their abuser.

Crawford County's Victim Rights Advocate office is the first in the state of Michigan to purchase and put to use a witness screen. Huss said she demonstrated the screen recently for a group in Lansing. Now four other counties have purchased the screen and many more are seriously considering acquiring a screen for their courtrooms.

Deputies' Christmas trees a big hit with community

► Holiday tree sales help pay for local kids' activities all year round

by Cheryl Ruley
Staff Writer

Each year, the Crawford County Deputy Sheriff's Association (CCDSA) sets up shop in the parking lot of the Grayling, to pedal their Christmas trees, with the hopes of funding activities all year long for local kids.

The activities always focus on safety, such as the spring Bicycle Safety Rodeo and Halloween safety education that includes a reflective treat bag for each child. But the sale of Christmas trees also funds the very important "Cops for Kids" holiday program.

The Cops for Kids program puts deputies together with local at-risk children for a shopping trip to buy needed items such as hats, mittens and other clothing. The outing creates friendships and a boost to the self-esteem of the kids involved. It's pretty rewarding and heart-warming for the deputies, too.

To the families of the children, food baskets are donated by the Grayling Eagles.

With Christmas ever so near, the deputies have pretty much sold every one of the 185 trees they purchased this year at cost from a Kalkaska tree farm. Together with their spouses, they have been willing to brave winter's chill for the cause for many years now. High school students in need of community service hours have also volunteered at the lot.

Offered this year were Scotch Pines at $15 each, Blue Spruce at $25 each, or the choice of a Douglas Fir or a Black Hills for $30. There is always a variety of shapes and sizes from which to choose.

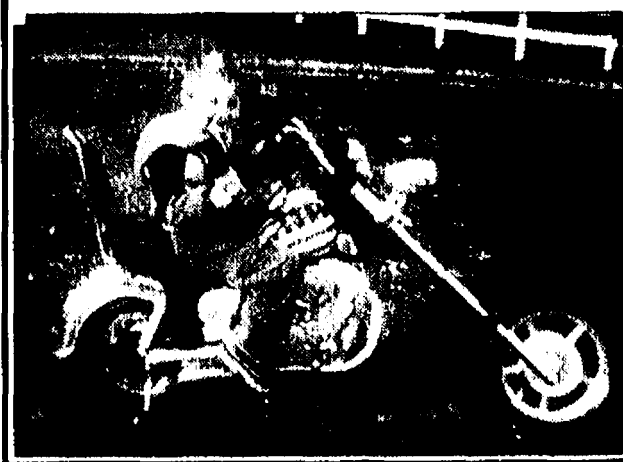

For those didn't buy a tree from the deputies' lot this year, but would still like to help with their only official fund-raiser of the year, monetary donations are welcome. Checks and money orders should be made payable to "CCDSA" and mailed in care of the Crawford County Sheriff's Office, 200 West Michigan Avenue, Grayling, MI 49738.

Any questions about the Crawford County Deputy Sheriff's Association and its good works may be directed to Theresa Andrews, treasurer of the CCDSA, at 344-3213.

The Christmas tree lot tradition will continue next year.

ISSUES AND OPINIONS

ALMANACK

by Richard Milliman

Does Michigan really need year-round legislature?

MAKING LAWS in Michigan is a sight to behold.

The 92nd Michigan legislature, for example, has been in office since January 1, 2000. Yet two years later, it is scrambling to finish its work before it dies.

The crunch is that any proposal introduced since New Year's day in 2000 and not enacted by year end 2002 dies as the 92nd Legislature goes out of existence.

So why aren't all these things taken care of before the pre-Christmas crisis? The Michigan legislature, after all, is a full time year around job, so why the rush at the end?

Some items the lawmakers handled are of recent vintage -- such as Governor John Engler's laundry list of budget cuts to live within the legal requirement to balance the state budget.

Some things were late entries in some legislator's head -- such as increasing from $40 to $250 the amount auto dealer's can charge for paper work on a new car sale.

Most matters have been simmering for months or even years -- permission for yet another Indian casino in Allegan County this time, or modifying the state's hold on the Detroit public school system, or eliminating compulsory prison terms in some drug cases thus giving judges more discretion.

Some late year actions were good -- such as ending compulsory sentencing. Some were not so good -- such as hiking the auto dealers' paper work charge. But they all were caught in the year end crunch.

Once the fine print in these lame duck actions becomes clear, some surprises may have slipped into law. Some obscure "clarifying amendments" that somehow sneak into law have been known to yield unheralded results.

But anyway, the 92nd Legislature is done now ... or is it? The lawmakers may come back again before year's end to tie up even more loose ends. It's possible.

* * *

ARE TERM LIMITS at blame for hurry-up year end confusion?

Under term limits adopted by voters a few years ago, 24 of 110 house members, and 28 of 38 senators are forced to leave office.

With them goes a combined total of almost 500 years of experience in the Michigan legislature.

The problem with Michigan lawmaking is not term limits. The problem is that the legislature is full time and meets year around.

Since the legislature became a career instead of a public service, it rarely adjourns until sometime in December. The legislature convenes each January, then recesses several times throughout the year, and meets again in December to close up shop.

That's the way it's been for about the last 40 years or so. Before that, Michigan's legislature was part time, with part time pay and limited sessions.

Most states do not have full time legislating. In most states the legislature meets for a limited period early in the year and must have its work done in a specified time -- usually 90 or 120 days. Then the legislators go home, and live more like normal citizens.

* * *

IN MOST STATES, the legislature is not a career. In Michigan it is, with pay levels now at about $85,000, and a plush retirement program, which includes lifetime medical insurance.

Michigan's full time lawmaking system costs huge tax dollars not only for pay and fringes for the members, but also for a huge legislative staff, some of which is duplicated twice -- house to senate, then again legislative to executive.

With a part time legislature, the state could abandon some legislative office buildings in downtown Lansing, perhaps using them for other state purposes thus bringing a moratorium on building even more state offices.

No one who is or has been a member of the legislature in recent years will agree with this reasoning. They will insist they worked long hours and were busy all the time doing the people's business.

Even with professional full time lawmakers, working long hours, the state somehow is once again in crisis, unable to provide necessary services and the money to pay for them.

That's not very convincing testimony for the theory that a full time professional legislature is the best way to do the people's business ... even considering those 52 departing lawmakers, with bulging staffs and all those 500 years of experience, who have been running things for quite a while now.

Maybe it's time to try another way -- a part time system, with citizens legislators, not professionals, which is what the founders of our country had in mind all along.

A little tax planning now can pay off in April

This time of year it's not the tax man we're waiting for, but rather a rotund guy dressed in red and bearing gifts. Before you get swept up in holiday festivities, you might want to turn your attention to a little end-of-year tax planning that can reduce your taxable income. Think of it as a holiday gift to yourself that you will open next April 15.

"We know income taxes aren't a priority this time of year," says Suzanne Hunstad, a spokesperson for IHateFinancialPlanning.com. In fact, a poll of the Web site's users revealed that 51 percent of respondents never think about taxes until April. The site tailors its financial tools and topics for procrastinators and others who resist making progress with their personal finances.

"If we can get the word to taxpayers that they may be able to reduce the amount they will owe Uncle Sam next spring by acting now, it may motivate them to do a few smart things before the year ends," Hunstad adds.

What You Can Do At Work

One potential tax shelter is a retirement savings plan. Pre-tax dollars are deposited in a 401(k) or 403(b) account at work. That reduces your current taxable income while helping you build a nest egg for retirement. Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) can accomplish the same goal, but the annual contribution limits are much less.

Many employers offer flexible spending accounts which allow you to have money deducted from your paycheck for dependent care costs and medical expenses not covered by insurance (i.e., chiropractic care, prescription co-pays, crutches). It's a great way to reduce your taxable income, but plan carefully, because unused dollars must be forfeited at the end of each year. If your employee benefits enrollment has already occurred, you'll have to wait until next year to take advantage of this one.

For teachers, saving school supply receipts will come in handy at income tax time. In 2002 and 2003, educators can deduct up to $250 of their inevitable classroom purchases on their Form 1040. No itemizing required. "It's not a huge amount, but every little bit helps, especially on a teacher's salary," Hunstad says.

Some Simple Deductive Reasoning

The government designates a standard deduction, adjusted each year for inflation, designed for taxpayers who don't care to itemize their deductible expenses or may not have enough to qualify otherwise. The standard deduction for individuals for the 2002 tax year is $4,700, and for married, filing jointly it's $7,850. Check out these itemized deductions to see if you exceed the standard amount.

- State income taxes
- Personal property taxes
- Home mortgage interest
- Business expenses
- Qualified medical and dental expenses that exceed 7.5 percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI).
- What's more, you may be eligible for deductions you never knew existed, but be aware that most of these only count if, when added together, they equal 2 percent or more of your AGI. They include:
 - Interest on college loans
 - License tags for your car
 - Out-of-pocket expenses relating to charitable activities, including the standard mileage deduction
 - Appreciation on property donated to charity
 - Accounting fees for tax preparation
 - Losses from casualty or theft
 - Commissions and closing costs on the sale of property
 - Costs associated with looking for a new job in your present occupation, including fees for resume preparation and employment outplacement agencies

• Education expenses to the extent required by law or your employer, or needed to maintain or improve your skills

- Dues for labor unions
- Protective clothing required at work
- Subscriptions to professional journals
- Worthless stock or securities (this may be a common deduction in 2002).

Pay Now, Save Later

It may be worth your while to try to pay some anticipated expenses for 2003 yet this year to increase your deductions:

- Make your January mortgage payment in December, so the payment will be included on this year's 1098
- Give a year-end gift to your favorite charity
- Prepay state and local taxes so you can deduct next year's taxes on this year's return

Buy Low, Sell High
If you have investments, it's wise to examine their tax status before year-end. Depending on the type of earnings your investments generate in 2002, if any, they may be subject to income taxes. Interest, dividends and short-term capital gains (profits on assets held for less than a year) are currently taxed as ordinary income. Long-term capital gains are currently taxed at a somewhat lower rate, depending on the length of ownership and your tax bracket. If you're in a situation where you have realized capital gains, you may want to offset your tax bill by selling enough of your losing stocks to eliminate the tax you owe. A financial professional can help you with this decision.

Apply a few of these strategies and shape up your income tax situation long before your tax forms arrive early next year. IHateFinancialPlanning.com doesn't offer tax or legal advice, so you may want to seek the advice of a tax professional or certified public accountant to see which of these ideas may work in your particular situation. Parade needs coordinator, new ideas, 'shot in the arm'

To the editor,

The Grayling Promotional Association (GPA) feels it no longer has sufficient manpower to organize, arrange, and oversee the AuSable River Festival Parade. However, the membership feels that a parade is still needed for Grayling.

At this time, GPA is seeking a coordinator (hopefully from within the county) to take on the job. This should be someone with new ideas and who will bring in new and enthusiastic volunteers. This should give the parade a needed "shot in the arm."

This person will be responsible for picking a theme, getting volunteers, locating bands, floats, and other entries. A budget is available and can be discussed when candidates speak personally with the GPA.

GPA members will work in cooperation with the coordinator to help make the parade a very successful event. They will share their experience and contacts, and assist in every way possible.

The parade coordinator will be a paid position. Anyone interested in this position should contact the Grayling Promotional Association, P.O. Box 150, Grayling MI 49738.

Those not interested in being a coordinator, but who would like to volunteer to help with the parade are urged to notify the GPA at the above address.

cal work with the addition of simple scenery and some costumed characters. It was written in 1992 and was presented by the Community Choir in December of the same year.

The nucleus of the Community Choir is the Michelson Chancel Choir. During special seasons of the year, they are joined by members of the community to form a choir large enough to present a work such as this.

THE POWER SPOT

News from Grayling Elementary & AuSable Primary Schools

We have a winner! Although we think of each individual as a winner at the AuSable Primary School, only a selected few could win a turkey from the turkey decorating contest, and they are: Barbie Slater, Briann Koves, Skyler Moggo, John Verduco, Robert Jones, Carlisle Sloan, Tara Pummell, Victoria Doster, Bradley Charles, Chelsea Smith, Jordan Smith, Tiffany Mitchell, John Vance, Brittany Naumiec, Emily Schans, Jessica Fik, Sierra Dyer, Tristan Hurkmans, and Emily Trudeau.

For Thanksgiving, Ms. Goetz's Kindergarten class spent time preparing feast foods, such as corn muffins and butter, which went perfectly with cranberry sauce (a.k.a. Jell-O) and popcorn.

They had the choice of either being a pilgrim or a Native American and made costumes accordingly. Most importantly, the students discussed and wrote about what they were thankful for this year.

Safety Patrol Student for the month of November is Melissa Eckstorn.

The staff at Grayling Elementary School appreciated all the parents and community members who participated in our school-wide event, "Read for 2003" on December 6. All served as excellent role models for the young students and modeled the importance of reading.

The Kindergarten classes are taking donations for the Animal Shelter of Crawford County. A box is located in the hallway for all contributions.

Mrs. Lori Patterson's first grade class are writing their letters to Santa and having them mailed to the North Pole.

The second grade classes and the third grade multi-age class are traveling the world, with each class representing a different country: France, Germany, Holland, Italy, England and Mexico. As students travel from classroom to classroom, they are learning the holiday traditions of that country. As they get their passports stamped, they also leave with a little knowledge and craft for that country.

Getting into the holiday spirit the Kindergarten classes are spreading holiday joy to those who could always use it. The kids will be visiting the "Grandmas and Grandpas" at the Grayling Nursing Centre to sing Christmas carols for them.

Students at both schools are celebrating a week of special theme days, including P.J. and Slipper Day and Reindeer Day for the Primary students, and Christmas Pin and Shirt Days for the Elementary students.

Parents remember: Everybody goes outside for recess. The weather is getting colder and the children need to be dressed for the weather in hats, mittens, gloves, snow pants and coats or jackets. Make sure all clothing is labeled.

December 20 is the last day of school before Winter Break and will be a full day of school. Winter Break runs from December 23 through January 1, 2003.

Visit the schools' web site at: www.casdk12.net.

The Bible Speaks

Religion and War

Religion Editor Stephen Scott wrote an interesting article about two groups of Minnesotan Christians going to the Middle East, one group to show their solidarity with Israel, and the other to support Palestinians. One group says they are trying to bring about justice by living among Palestinians and helping them with their olive harvest. A spokeswoman for the other group called, Bridges for Peace, said, "We believe that the covenant God made with Israel through Abraham was an eternal covenant, and that as Christians we are brought into that covenant and instructed by the Lord to come alongside, to assist that nation in whatever way we can."

Some Christians have a messianic view of Israel and believe they must support Israel financially and politically to prepare for the second coming of Jesus Christ. They consider Israel a natural ally of the United States. "They know Israel is the only democracy in the region, and though it's not perfect, they stand clearly and unashamedly in partnership with Israel."

Some orthodox Jews also believe they must rebuild the temple to usher in the first coming of Messiah. They believe they are working to help Messiah who will bring redemption to the world. They are suspicious of Christian assistance believing that Christians want to help them only to convert them.

The Muslims also believe Jerusalem will be the last refuge of their true believers. They believe Jesus Christ will return and convert to Islam and then bring the whole world under Islamic law. They believe the last war will be led by antichrist, the west, and Israel against the Muslims.

The Bible clearly prophesies the last battle of Armageddon will be a religious war. Much of the religious confusion and conflict today comes from a faulty interpretation of the Bible. God makes a clear distinction between Jews, Gentiles, and the church. God commands us in 1 Cor. 10:32: "Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God." Many Christian denominations reject God's distinction between Israel and the church. They believe Israel came under God's judgment 2000 years ago and God replaced Israel with the church. Therefore, they make no clear distinction between the Jews of the Old Testament and the Christians of the New Testament. While they claim for the church today God's promises of blessing given to Israel in the OT, they apply all of God's judgment and curses in the OT to Israel and the Jews.

Conservative Jews and Christians who believe God's Word know that God's own zeal and work will bring the Messiah to earth. (2 Kings 19:31; Isa 9:7; 37:32; Acts 1:6,7). Liberals both among Jews and Christians trust united human efforts through the state to bring utopia to earth. Conservative Bible believers know God says what he means, and means what He says. If Israel and the Jews cannot trust God's promises for now, how can any church or Christian trust the same God for their eternal salvation? Israeli Foreign Minister Benjamin Netanyahu says Israel doesn't have many friends, and such Christians are friends, and the end of time will tell who will be converted. I agree, Messiah will do His own will! Pastor "B"

Please pray for God's blessings upon the ministry of his column and our church Website at <http://www.j2k.net/~cba>. We at Calvary Baptist Church invite you to learn more from the Bible about Jesus Christ. Join us in a verse by verse study of the gospel of John each Sunday.

New video games offer action without gore

In the past three years, the United States has suffered countless tragic losses of teens at the hands of other teens: Littleton, Colorado; Paducah, Kentucky; Eugene, Oregon; Pearl, Mississippi. All of these sites were examples of deadly rampages and in each case the shooters had one thing in common -- they were all avid players of violent video games.

Several parents sued 24 of the most prominent video game companies in the industry in the aftermath of the Columbine shootings that left 13 people dead. The lawsuits were eventually dropped and the video game industry continues to produce games that are more violent than ever.

In the dark days that followed the tragic shootings at Columbine, several concerned members of a Southern Oregon community pooled their resources to create a company to make a difference and provide video game players an alternative to the standard, explicitly violent and gory games. N'Lightning Software Development Inc.

The mission of this company is to produce high quality action/adventure video games that do not portray violence to human beings or feature blood, guts and gore. Common sense cried out for such an alternative.

The task was daunting to say the least; a typical video game that is mass produced and sold worldwide costs millions of dollars to produce and requires a team of development and sales professionals to create, market, and distribute the games into the proper sales channels.

A small but dedicated team of individuals began development of a test demo. Within the next six months they had created a technical demo of their first title and were able to secure the money they needed to complete the game from an investor that believed in their mission.

Eighteen months later, "Catechumen" was released for sale to the general public. The game features a biblically-based storyline set in ancient Rome with impressive graphics and intense game play. With praise from game reviewers and word-of-mouth, Catechumen soon became the top selling inspirational computer game of all time.

During the last two years, the team at N'Lightning Software has been fervently working on a new title featuring improved graphics, advanced artificial intelligence and an intriguing storyline. The result is "Ominous Horizons".

This first person action/adventure game is set in the late 1400's in Mainz, Germany. The games plot revolves around Johan Gutenberg and the creation of the first printing press. The player's task is to assist the famous inventor and retrieve ancient biblical manuscripts needed to complete the printing of the Holy Bible. This game is a refreshing, innovative example of a game that can be fun, exciting, and visually stunning without portraying blood, guts and gore.

While N'Lightning has earned critical acclaim and a small, but loyal following, it is still an uphill battle in an industry that continues to pander to the darker instincts and emotions in all of us. N'Lightning is dedicated to providing alternative games with a higher calling. For more information, log on to: www.n-lightning.com.

Police records show Adkins himself was shot two months prior to the Dingess killing by the victim's mother, who had a record of violent crime.

Sparks said the late Anthony Dingess allegedly would beat Adkins and force him to hand over his monthly assistance checks. Adkins had reportedly taken the beatings long enough and shot Dingess.

Adkins had no criminal record in West Virginia at the time of the shooting, and the Logan Banner, a local newspaper, reported Adkins had posted several "No Trespassing" signs around his property in an effort to keep the Dingesses away.

A Logan County, WV jury deliberated for four hours, finding Adkins guilty of murder in the first degree. He was sentenced May 10, 2000. Adkins appealed the decision in January 2001, but the West Virginia Court of Appeals upheld his conviction by a 4-3 decision.

His minimum discharge date has been listed as "Death."

In Crawford County, Adkins has been wanted since June 1999 for failing to appear for a jury trial on the charges of operating a motor vehicle under the influence of liquor (OUIL), unlawful blood alcohol level (UBAL), and possession of marijuana.

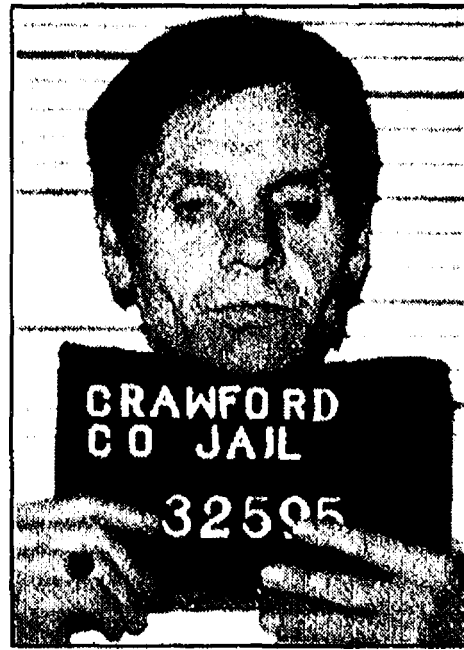

Sheriff Wakefield said his office has learned of the whereabouts of three other people on the newly developed list, but would not elaborate. He did say, however, the fugitives are not in the state of Michigan, therefore his office will not be pursuing apprehension. "My budget simply won't allow for travel outside of the state, but if and when they come to Michigan, we'll arrest them," Wakefield said.

"It's a good thing they are not in Michigan," Wakefield remarked. "And, they can just stay out of our county. As far as I'm concerned -- considering what this first guy (Adkins) is in prison for -- the list may prove to be pretty effective crime prevention."

Prosecutor John Huss said his office will not be pursuing Adkins' Crawford County case any further due to his life sentence without possibility of parole.

Now that one fugitive has been removed from the Ten Most Wanted list, Sheriff Wakefield has replaced Adkins with another fugitive, Kerry Itaskie Harrington.

Harrington is a white female, age 27. She is 5'7" tall and in 1998 weighed 180 pounds. She has blond hair and blue eyes, and also goes by the aliases of Kerry Itaskie and Kerry I. Taylor. She has been issued two different Michigan driver licenses and has an FBI record. Her last known addresses were in Gaylord, but Wakefield said Harrington is reportedly living in a southern state with her mother.

William Ray Adkins, one of the Crawford County Sheriff's Ten Most Wanted, criminals, has been located.

Kerry Itaskie Harrington, found guilty in 1999 of negligent homicide, has been added to the Sheriff's Ten Most Wanted list.

Harrington is wanted in Crawford County on multiple charges stemming from an original charge of negligent homicide. In 1999, she was found guilty of negligent homicide in the death of 65-year old Doris Shinabarger of Prescott, who was removing a shopping cart from the I-75 Business Loop at about 11:30 p.m. on September 26 when she was struck and killed by the car Harrington was driving.

Court records show Harrington also has outstanding warrants in Otsego County on two felony "no account" check charges and one misdemeanor charge of assault and battery.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Harrington or any of the other nine people on the Ten Most Wanted list, may leave an anonymous tip by calling the Crawford County Jail at (989) 348-4822 (24 hours), the tip line at (989) 348-4616, ext. 228, or by e-mail to: tips@crawfordsheriff.org.

Families, friends can make holidays happy for those living in extended care facilities

It's the holiday season again, and time to think about holiday activities and gifts for our family and friends. If you have a family member or friend in a nursing home, you may be wondering what you can do to make sure they feel the holiday spirit too.

Staff members at nursing home and eldercare services suggest planning regular visits throughout the season that include activities that are centered on the holidays. For example:

• Room Decorating -- Help your loved one decorate his or her room with holiday decorations. Small, artificial Christmas trees decorated with holiday ornaments look great on dressers and can really make a room look and feel festive. You may also want to consider flannel holiday bedding such as sheets, pillow cases, and comforters. Not only will this keep your family member warm, but it is another way to add holiday decorations. Be creative -- the more festive the better. And, don't forget their favorite holiday music!

• Holiday Cards -- It may be difficult for your loved one to send holiday cards to family and friends. You can help write personal notes in the cards, address envelopes, and make sure the cards get to the post office. You can also help a family member read and display the holiday cards they receive.

• Shopping -- Consider inviting your loved one on a holiday shopping trip. They can experience all the fun of holiday shopping with your extra help. Consider planning your shopping trip during a time when there will be fewer crowds so it will be easier to move through the stores.

• Holiday apparel -- Holiday robes, slippers, sweaters, jewelry and socks are already out in the stores. Consider bringing your loved one holiday apparel and accessories that he or she can wear throughout the season.

You may also be wondering what would be an appropriate gift for someone in a nursing home. Just as you would with others on your list, consider gifts that match his or her hobbies, interests and needs. Remember the nursing home is their home, so you will want to consider activities or items that help them feel comfortable and secure. Beverly Healthcare staff members suggest the following holiday gifts:

• Room Decorations -- Framed pictures, prayers or quotes, books, pretty quilts, blankets or pillows that make a room more home-like and comfortable. Nonpoisonous plants also make good gifts. They brighten up a room, and give your loved one something to care for. Also, a calendar with special dates and upcoming events, such as grandchildren's birthdays, children's anniversaries and graduations, along with a selection of cards and stamps will help your loved one celebrate special occasions.

• Toiletries -- Even seemingly simple gifts such as talcum powder, lotion, a toothbrush or toothpaste can significantly contribute to a resident's comfort and well being. Because the texture of skin changes with age, you will want to check with nursing home staff to make sure such gifts are appropriate. Gift certificates to the nursing home's beauty salon for a haircut or manicure are especially appreciated. To make it more special, you can give yourself a gift and join your loved one at the salon.

• Entertainment -- Sometimes nursing home residents are not able to attend special family events such as graduation, anniversary or birthday parties. Videotape the event so your family member can see the festivities and feel as though he or she is an important part of the family. Watch it together so you can relive the festivities, too. Books and music are also popular. If your loved one has vision problems, make a date to visit weekly and read to him or her.

Clothing -- Gifts that help your loved one feel warm and cozy during the winter months can be especially welcome. Cardigan sweaters, sweat suits, hand knitted booties or slippers and lap blankets are just a few gift ideas. And, don't forget to pick up cheerful sweaters, sweat-shirts and socks depicting fun holiday scenes.

Above all, sometimes the simplest gifts are the most appreciated. If your loved one is mobile, take him or her for an outing to a favorite restaurant, plan a visit to a church or synagogue for services or invite their friends to the nursing home for a special lunch. And of course, visiting a family member in a nursing home is often the best gift.

Phoenix program teams up kids for learning

Students from Karen Leslie's Phoenix program, located at Grayling Middle School, teamed up with students from Karyn Rauch-Smock's preschool class located at AuSable Primary School to enhance both sets of students' current learning programs.

Middle school students read to the younger students, who enjoyed the books and the company, then enjoyed some follow up activities together.

Both sets of students said they found the combination of age groups, reading and activities to be a great learning experience for them all.

OMH welcomes pediatrician

Dr. Colleen Vallad-Hix, D.O.

Dr. Lina Dagistani and Dr. Steven Kaufmann recently welcomed their colleague, Colleen M. Vallad-Hix, D.O., to the pediatric services department of Otsego Memorial Hospital in Gaylord.

Dr. Vallad-Hix's practice has been in primary care pediatrics and academic medicine. Her emphasis is on newborns, asthma management, apnea, and myelodysplasia.

"I chose pediatrics because I love children," she said. "It makes my job enjoyable and puts me in an atmosphere in which I feel comfortable."

Dr. Vallad-Hix received her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine from Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO and completed her residency at Michigan State University and Sparrow/Lansing General Hospitals.

She is a member of the Ingham County Osteopathic Society, Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physician and Surgeons (MAOPS), American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), American College of Osteopathic Pediatricians (ACOP), governor's task force for asthma, and chair of Professional development committee for Mid-Michigan Asthma Coalition.

"My practice has included the care, of all ages, newborn to 21 years old. I specialize in treatment of asthma, osteopathic manipulation which involves using hands for treatment and cranial manipulation to improve suck and latch-on for breast-feeding newborns," Dr. Vallad-Hix said.

Dr. Vallad-Hix's family origins are from northern Michigan. Her grandmother was raised in the Rogers City area and her father lives in Black River. Her fiancé is a ski instructor at Shanty Creek and Schuss Mountain. She has three grown children, two of whom are twins.

"I am excited to have a practice in the northern Michigan area. This is where my family roots are and that makes coming to Gaylord special."

Dr. Vallad-Hix's office is located in the Family Practice and Pediatrics suite on the second floor of the Otsego Memorial Hospital Professional Medical Building, 829 N. Center Ave., in Gaylord. Call (989) 731-7860 to schedule an appointment.

Anesthesia providers now part of OMH staff

Dr. Felix Winkler, M.D.

Otsego Memorial Hospital, in Gaylord, recently welcomed Felix Winkler, M.D. and Soo Young Hwang, M.D., to the Anesthesia Department.

"I am excited to be part of the fast growing surgical services associated with Otsego Memorial Hospital and still being able to enjoy a northern Michigan lifestyle," said Dr. Winkler.

Dr. Winkler completed his medical education at the University of Vienna, and an internship and residency at St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center, Syracuse, New York. Specializing in pain management Dr. Winkler is board certified, and brings with him over 20 years of experience. He has also been named Medical Director of the OMH Anesthesia Department.

"I enjoy providing patients with a high standard of safe assistance undergoing surgical procedures," said Winkler.

Dr. Winkler is also looking forward to his continued affiliation with Dr. Hwang. The two physicians practiced together at another northern Michigan facility.

"I love to take care of patients," said Dr. Hwang. "It gives me great pleasure and satisfaction when I see patients get better after treatment of an illness."

Dr. Hwang completed his medical education at the Korea University Medical College, and residency at Beth Israel Medical Center, New York. He has practiced for over 24 years and brings an array of knowledge in pediatric anesthesiology to Otsego Memorial Hospital.

"I'm interested in all kinds of outdoor activities including golf, skiing, fishing and kayaking," said Hwang.

Both Dr. Winkler and Dr. Hwang have grown children.

Are you expecting?

Here's what you need to know.

Taking folic acid early can reduce the risk of birth defects, such as spina bifida
During pregnancy, smoking can cause low birth weights and premature labor
Cat litter may contain a parasite that can put you and your baby at risk of infection
Taking 25 mg of Vitamin B-6 three times a day can help soothe morning sickness

Learning you're pregnant means numerous questions and concerns. Fortunately, there are many places you can go for answers, starting with an Obstetrician like Carl Schubert, OB/Gyn, at Mercy Family Care in Grayling. Dr. Schubert knows that every pregnancy is unique, ensuring that you and your developing baby are getting the quality care needed - close to home.

In Memory of

Jane Stevens

.....A Special Invitation

God, the Father, Christ the Son, the Holy Spirit all called the three in one

Are planning a special celebration Christmas eve and a special lady has been bid to come

They sent an angel messenger to invite her

She was so excited and so blessed

She even has her hair fixed and permed

Look, Lord! For You she wanted to look her best.

Now being the wife and loving Mom and grandmother

Her thoughts turned to her dear family

As she settled back in her favorite chair she prayed

Lord, hug em extra special on Christmas, just from me.

The feast table in Heaven was laden and full

There were little children, fireman, policeman there

And a special hand-written invitation waiting

As Jane Stevens gently, arrived to take her chair

What a grand reunion, many family and friends

The Trinity said the earthly children celebrated The silent coming. The Christ Child's birth, this evening

And this special invitation was for one who waited

Well, look at Jane now so happy and whole

So complete as she sits near Jesus' feet

And sending her love to all her dear ones

Whispers, "don't sorrow," for I am complete

So this Christmas, Heaven sent "A Special Invitation" to our dear Jane; who ran the race and won

And greeted at the gate, heard her sweet Saviour say,

Welcome to our birthday party, Jane/child; well done.

Deeply missed by

CHIROPRACTIC FOR BETTER HEALTH

Dr. Craig Denholm — CHIROPRACTOR —

THE HEALING ART

Have you ever stopped to think about the healing art and what it means? It's not magic, but it IS method. Doctors of chiropractic use the natural health method, based on many decades of scientific observation. Like other branches of the healing arts, chiropractic is both an art and a science.

A normally functioning nervous system is vital to good health. All of the structures and cells in your body depend on impulses carried by your nervous system. When these impulses travel uninterrupted, your organs and cells are able to function normally. But when there is interference, either too much or not enough nerve supply, your tissues and organs cannot function properly. This may make your body more prone to disease and other bodily ills.

The most delicate and important organs of the nervous system are located in your brain and spinal column. Although the spine supports and helps protect these vital nerves, any misalignment may cause interference with the flow of nerve impulses. That's why doctors of chiropractic concentrate in this area.

D.A.R.E. graduation ceremony held in Frederic

Twenty-one fifth graders graduated from the D.A.R.E. program this month at Frederic Elementary. The ceremony was conducted by the D.A.R.E. instructor Deputy Bill Bonkowski. Undersheriff Shawn Krayes, Frederic lead teacher Kim VanDrese and Superintendent Milli Haug also helped with the ceremony. More than 20 parents and grandparents attended the ceremony. Krayes told the audience they provided an "awesome display of support for your children." Bonkowski thanked the fifth graders for giving him one of the best experiences of his life and said the class was just like a group of brothers and sisters. Each student must write an essay at the completion of the course. Jordan Luce and Ashley Newberry were chosen to read their essays for their peers at the ceremony. After the program, refreshments were served and each graduate was given a D.A.R.E. balloon. The graduates then gathered outside, released their balloons, and tried to keep track of them as they drifted east toward the interstate.

Winning D.A.R.E. essays

I think D.A.R.E. is a good thing to have because kids learn what to do and what not to do when somebody asks them to do something like drugs. And it will help people when they get older so they will live longer if they stay drug free.

I have learned that if you do drugs once you might get addicted to them. And I have learned that if you take drugs you might have heart problems. Chewing tobacco can eat away your face. And it can kill you if you chew it too much.

I think it is important to stay drug free because you will live longer and you won't regret it. And it will lead you to a better life and a better future.

My goals are to be a cop, go to Michigan State and stay drug and alcohol free.

Jordan Luce

The D.A.R.E. program is fun, easy and educational program.

It is important to stay drug free. This highly acclaimed program gives the children the skills they need to avoid involvement in drugs, gangs and violence.

If you do drugs you could ruin your life because you will spend all of your money on drugs and steal to get more drugs. Drugs can even cause death.

I have learned how important it is to stay drug and violence free and what peer pressure can make people do. I learned that public service announcements are good, but regular advertisements don't always tell you everything.

My goals when I am older are to be a D.A.R.E. teacher or a singer. I would like to graduate from college. I will live long enough to graduate from college and be a D.A.R.E. teacher if I stay off of drugs.

Ashley Newberry

A NASCAR fan's dream comes true

While everyone else in Grayling was preparing for the canoe marathon last July 20, Jim Kehr was living out his dream at Lowe's Motor Speedway in Charlotte, North Carolina. Kehr entered the Richard Petty Rookie Driving Experience contest through NAPA Auto Parts and won eight laps around the race track in an official NASCAR. His top speed was achieved in his 7th lap -- 138.15 m.p.h. "It's not everyday a guy gets to drive a real NASCAR," Kehr said. "The car's tires stick like bubble gum to the track when rounding the corners. The experience was exciting and everyone there was great."

That's Jim Kehr caught on film driving one of his laps.

Jim Kehr takes the driver's seat in the #43 "Cheerios" NASCAR, ready to start his eight laps around the track.

The GHS varsity boys basketball squad improved its season record to 2-0 with a 55-54 victory over the Panthers of Standish Sterling Central in Grayling last week in a match that came down to the final possession.

The Vikings led 13-8 after one quarter of play. Roy Czapek scored nine of Grayling's 13 first period points with a put-back, a three-point play, a jump shot, and a tip-in on an in-bounds pass from Ryan Schmidt. GHS also scored on a pair of free throws by Joe Zelek and a jump shot by Adam Kaiser in the first quarter.

In the second period, Standish scored 17 points – nine at the free throw line – to Grayling's nine to lead 25-22 at halftime. GHS scored its nine on a jump shot by Gibson Tobin, a shot inside by Czapek, a put-back by Roger Alvarez, and free throws by Chad Helsel, Andy Strohpaul, and Zelek.

The GHS varsity girls basketball team recently announced team awards and all-conference selections for the 2002 season at its annual end-of-the-season banquet.

Two Vikings — Tracy Parkinson and Kim Mitchell — received all-league recognition in the North East Michigan Conference for the 2002 fall season.

KIRTLAND BASKETBALL

ROSCOMMON — Kirtland Community College is playing host to its first-ever Great North Christmas Tournament — eight teams, men's and women's brackets, played over two days on December 20-21 at the CRAF Center in downtown Roscommon.

"We're bringing college basketball to the heart of Northern Michigan in a big way," Kirtland athletic director and men's coach Glen Donahue said. "We've been working hard to make this a quality event that will reflect well on our college and our community."

Action gets under way at 2 p.m. Friday, when women's teams from Gogebic and Finlandia University tip off. At 4 p.m., the men's side of the tournament begins when Gogebic and Lourdes College, of Ohio, face one another. Kirtland's Lady Firebirds open at 6 p.m. against Algoma University College, from Canada. And Kirtland's men play at 8 p.m., tipping off against Kellogg Community College.

On Saturday, the women's consolation game begins at noon, when the two losing teams from Friday's games meet. At 2 p.m., the men's consolation game begins. The women's championship game begins at 4 p.m. and the men play their championship game at 6 p.m.

Championship trophies will be awarded. Also, all-tournament teams and tourney MVPs also will be named.

Admission to all games is free. For more information, phone (989) 275-5000, ext. 325.

Men's Team

HOUGHTON LAKE — Freshman forward Jeremy Rau scored 20 points and hauled down 24 rebounds Saturday to power Kirtland to a 95-85 victory over Lambton University.

Kirtland trailed, 51-45, at the intermission, and fell behind by as many as seven early in the second half before the Firebirds mounted their comeback with Rau controlling the boards at both ends. The game was played at Houghton Lake High School.

Reuben Edwards had 13 points, 11 rebounds, five assists, and three steals for the winners. Jake Milarch had 15 points, Eugene Phillips had 14, and Terrance Coker contributed 11 to help Kirtland even its record to 4-4.

Matt Bottineau had 23 for Lambton, 8-8, the Sarnia, Ontario-based college.

Women's Team

HOUGHTON LAKE — Lansing Community College's Jessica Schmitt scored 18 points and led a second-half comeback Saturday in a 61-54 victory over Kirtland.

Kirtland used 68 percent shooting from the floor to build a 12-point lead in the first half before settling for a 34-27 lead at the intermission. But defensive breakdowns and some sharpshooting from the perimeter by Lansing turned the game around quickly in the second half. Ashley Ingram had 15 points and 10 rebounds and Stephanie Mitchell had 10 points and 11 rebounds as Lansing improved to 4-3 — two of the victories coming at Kirtland's expense.

Becca Miller had 14 points and Jeni Kemp had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Kirtland, 4-6.

The Lady Firebirds resume action Friday against Algoma (Ontario) in the opener of the Great North Christmas Tournament in Roscommon.

There's only one guy who should drive loaded.

When it comes to alcohol, it's easy to be fooled by appearances. But the fact is, an "innocent" 12 oz. mug of beer or a "harmless" 5 oz. glass of wine is as guilty of causing intoxication as a standard 1 1/4 oz. shot of hard liquor.

No matter what you're drinking, one drink per hour sets the pace for responsible moderation. Eating foods that are rich in protein beforehand is another way to temper the effects of alcohol.

But perhaps the most sobering fact of all, is that you really don't have to drink to have a great time.

This holiday season, be merry but wise. Use good judgment. Don't drink and drive.

Varsity team wins season opener

► Grayling beats Owls of Oscoda 62-56 at GHS to start '02-03 season

by Caleb Casey
Staff Writer

The Vikings of Grayling High School opened their 2002-03 varsity boys basketball season with a win over the Owls of Oscoda in Grayling last Tuesday.

The game was tied at halftime, but Grayling pulled away with a strong third quarter and a big run early in the fourth. Oscoda rallied late in the fourth period, but never got closer than seven.

Grayling got off to a good start. Travis Helsel converted a three-pointer on the first shot of the game to put the Vikings up 3-0. Two drives by Gibson Tobin gave GHS a 7-0 advantage. The Vikings ended the first period with a 13-11 lead after scoring six more points on a lay-up by Tobin, a jump shot by Andy Strohpaul, and a tip-in by Roy Czapke.

The Owls opened the second quarter with four points on a lay-up and two free throws to take a two-point lead. A triple by Tobin put the Vikings back up by one. Oscoda took a one-point lead with a shot inside.

A three-pointer by Tobin at the 5:00 mark put GHS up by two. Twenty-five seconds later, Tobin connected on another triple to give the Vikings a 22-17 lead.

A 6-0 run by Oscoda put the Owls up by one.

A lay-up by Tobin on a pass from Strohpaul and a free throw by Strohpaul gave Grayling 25 for the half.

Oscoda also finished with a total of 25 first half points.

Oscoda scored the first basket of the second half. Free throws by Czapke and Adam Kaiser tied the game at 27-27. A jump shot by Oscoda gave the Owls a two-point edge.

The Vikings rallied and outscored Oscoda 18-3 in the last five minutes of the third quarter. Helsel got it started for Grayling with a jump shot and two three-pointers. After a jump shot by Tobin, Grayling scored eight more points on three drives and a jump shot (at the buzzer) by Kaiser.

Grayling carried its momentum over into the fourth quarter. The Vikings extended their lead to 20 with a 10-3 run in the first three minutes of the fourth period. The run included a drive by Tobin, a lay-up by Helsel, two put-backs by Joe Lange, and a jumper by Tobin.

Oscoda outscored Grayling 21-7 in the last five minutes of the game, but came up short. The Vikings won by eight, 62-56.

Tobin was the leading scorer for GHS with 25 points. He also had seven assists. Helsel finished with 14 points, and Kaiser had 10. Helsel was Grayling's leading rebounder with seven.

On defense, Tobin had 11 deflections and Lange had eight, including four blocked shots.

"Our intensity was good for the first game," Coach Rich Moffit said. "We boarded well in the second half and played with some urgency in the third quarter."

"Our big guys did a lot of positive things at the defensive end of the court during the second half," Coach

Moffit said. "Morrill, Lange, Czapke, Alvarez, and Zelek did an outstanding job of defending in the paint."

"We have an awful long ways to go. We need to finish games stronger than what we did tonight and we also need to cut down on our turnovers (24)," Moffit said.

Basketball team to honor Frederic Eagles on Friday

On Friday, December 20 Grayling High School will honor former basketball players and cheerleaders from Frederic High School prior to the Grayling vs. Kalkaska varsity basketball game.

Former Frederic Eagles players and cheerleaders are encouraged to arrive at the gymnasium by 7 p.m. The event will also include a reception in the GHS cafeteria after the game. For more information, contact Rich Moffit or Djanne Tobin at (989) 344-3506.

Vikings defeat SSC by one

The Vikings had a good third quarter. Grayling opened the period with a 10-2 run that included jumpers by Kaiser and Tobin, a put-back by Czapek, a triple by Kaiser, and a drive by Tobin.

A three-pointer by Travis Helsel gave Grayling a 36-31 advantage with 3:10 left in the third quarter.

With two free throws by Tobin, a jump shot by Schmidt, and a triple by Greg Morrill just before the buzzer, Grayling led 43-35 going into the fourth quarter.

Foul trouble was catching up with the Vikings — two players had four prior to the fourth period. (Three more Grayling players would reach four in the fourth, and two Vikings fouled out before the end of the match.)

Standish scored the first two baskets of the fourth quarter — both shots inside — to pull within four.

A put-back by Joe Lange put the Vikings up by six. Standish scored on a put-back to pull back within four. A put-back by Czapek gave GHS a six-point edge.

Standish scored, and Grayling answered with a jump shot by Kaiser. On three trips to the line, the Panthers converted five of six free throws to cut Grayling's lead to one.

A drive by Kaiser put Grayling up by three with 3:00 left in regulation.

Three free throws by Standish on two trips to the line tied the game at 51-51 with just over two minutes to play.

With 1:48 left on the game clock, Lange scored on a shot inside to give Grayling a two-point lead. Standish missed a shot at the other end, and Lange rebounded. The Vikings killed time off the clock, then turned the ball over.

Standish hit a three-pointer with 31 seconds left in the game, putting the Panthers up by one.

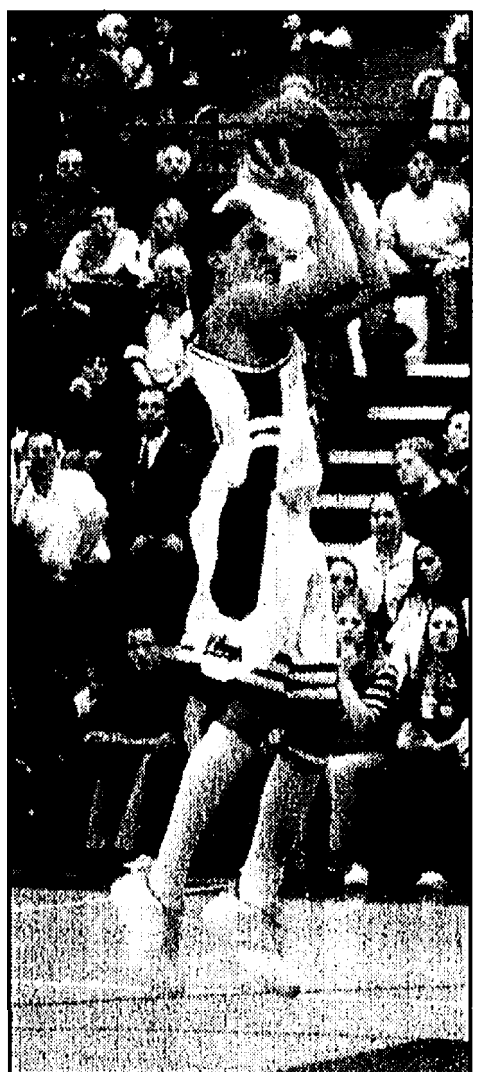

Grayling got the ball in bounds and across the half-court line through SSC's full court pressure defense and called time-out. The Vikings got the ball in to Kaiser, who drove to the basket for a reverse lay-up. He scored it, giving Grayling a one-point lead with nine seconds left on the clock.

As Standish dribbled past the half-court line, Tobin came up with a steal and ran off the last few seconds, sealing the win for Grayling. Kaiser's lay-up ended up being the game winner.

Czapek was the leading scorer for GHS with 15 points. Kaiser had 13. Eleven players scored for Grayling in the match.

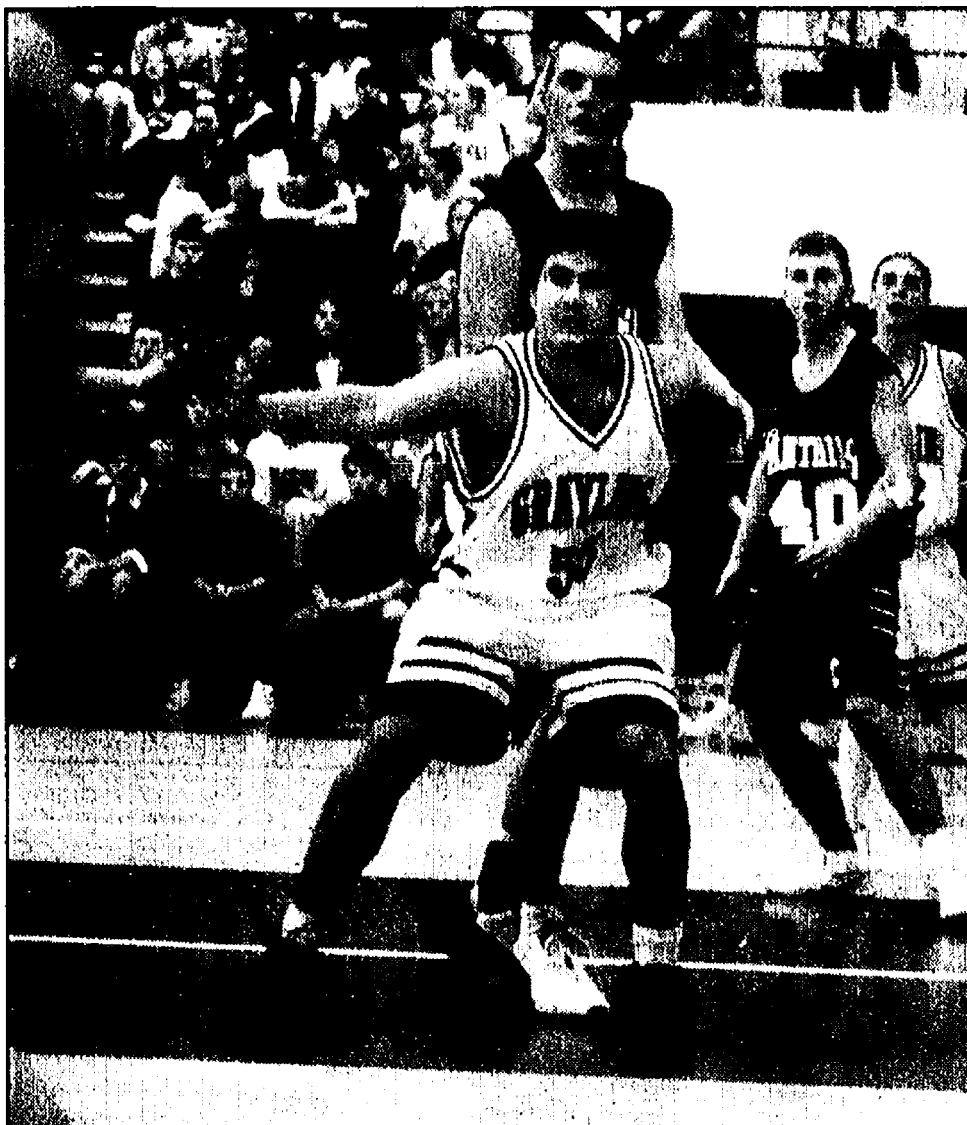

Friday night's victory over Standish put GHS at 2-0 in the North East Michigan Conference and 2-0 overall.

The Vikings will host Kalkaska on Friday, December 20.

FOOT NOTES

by Ronald K. Olm, D.P.M.

TYPES OF HAMMERTOE

A hammertoe, triggered by a muscle imbalance, looks like an upside-down letter V. This condition, more common in females, typically affects the second through fifth toes. Flexible hammertoes are more treatable because the joint still maintains some mobility. Rigid hammertoes, however, occur when people delay seeking treatment or in people suffering from arthritis. This more serious condition involves tight tendons and misaligned, immobile joints. Symptoms of hammertoes include pain with pressure, redness, swelling, impaired mobility, and the formation of corns. Patients may also experience pain in the ball of the foot or base of the affected toe. Genetics, injury, tight shoes, and systemic conditions like arthritis may also contribute to the formation of hammertoes.

Are you plagued by hammertoes or any other foot condition? One of the best things you can do to take good care of your feet is to treat them to regular podiatric care. With all they do for you, your feet deserve it. At GRAND TRAVERSE FOOT & ANKLE CENTER, P.C., we'll do all we can to teach you how, together as a team, we can keep the smile on your face and the swing in your step. State of the art facilities to treat all manner of foot problems are available to you at 1209 E. 8th Street, Traverse City. You can reach us at 922-9100 & 800-968-7440 to make an appointment. Offices in Traverse City, also Kalkaska Memorial Health Center Monday & Wednesday afternoons and evenings.

P.S. Padding, icing, and wearing comfortable shoes are conservative treatments for hammertoes.

JV squad wins twice in week #1

► Vikings defeat Oscoda; Standish Sterling Central to start '02-03 season

by Caleb Casey
Staff Writer

Grayling High School's junior varsity boys basketball team got off to a 2-0 start last week with victories over Oscoda and Standish Sterling Central in Grayling.

On Friday, the Vikings jumped out to big lead early against the visiting Panthers of Standish.

Grayling opened the game with an 11-0 run that included lay-ups by Josh Hinkle and Ryan Davis, a put-back by Bobby Starks, a jump shot by Ryan Davis, a drive by Hinkle, and a free throw by Matt Swope. With a strong full court press and aggressive defense, the Vikings turned Standish turnovers into Grayling points.

The Vikings scored six more points in the first quarter on baskets by Davis, D.J. Metzger, and Hinkle to lead 17-8 going into the second period.

Lay-ups by Hinkle, Davis, and Josh Millikin and a jump shot by Starks put the Vikings up 25-8. Two shots inside by Swope and a free throw by Davis gave GHS a 30-10 advantage.

With a three-point play by Starks, a shot inside by Jess Bobenmoyer on a pass from Davis, and a free throw by Davis, the Vikings led 36-17 by the end of the first half.

Grayling increased its lead with a 16-11 third quarter. The Vikings scored third period points on a lay-up by Davis, a shot inside by Bobenmoyer on an in-bounds pass from Davis, a shot inside and a jumper by Tyler Cragg, two lay-ups by Hinkle, and free throws by Davis and Hinkle.

GHS led 52-28 going into the fourth quarter.

The Vikings outscored Standish 22-19 in the last eight minutes of the game to seal a 74-47 victory.

Grayling scored its 22 points on a jumper by Cragg, a drive by Alex McNamara, a lay-up by Millikin, two put-backs by Russ Peters, a shot inside by Bobenmoyer on a pass from Peters, and free throws by Cragg, Starks, Millikin, Peters, and Metzger.

Grayling's scoring was well-distributed. All 10 Vikings scored in the match, with Davis leading the way at 14, with four rebounds, four steals, and six assists. Hinkle had 13 points, Millikin scored nine, and Cragg and Starks finished with eight points apiece.

On defense, Grayling had 36 deflections. Hinkle finished with seven steals, and Peters had five.

On Tuesday, the team won its season opener vs. the Owls of Oscoda 57-47 at GHS.

Despite being out of sync in the first quarter, the Vikings outscored the visiting Owls 14-2 in the first eight minutes of play. Grayling struggled with its press break, but the Vikings were able to overcome turnovers with aggressive play at the defensive end of the court.

Grayling ran its offense better in the second quarter and added another 20 points to its total. Oscoda scored 12 in the period.

Grayling's 20 included a jump shot by Swope, put-backs by Millikin and Davis (2), a drive by Cragg, and free throws by Swope, Starks, Hinkle, and Peters.

The Vikings led by 20, 34-14, at the half.

Grayling edged Oscoda 12-9 in the third period. The Vikings scored their 12 on shots inside by Starks and Millikin, a jumper by Davis, and free throws by Davis, Bobenmoyer, and Hinkle.

Oscoda rallied to outscore Grayling 24-11 in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to overcome the 23-point advantage the Vikings had going into the period.

Grayling won by 10, 57-47.

Davis was the leading scorer for Grayling with 11 points. Hinkle, the team's leading rebounder with five boards, added nine points.

Starks and Bobenmoyer each finished with eight points, and Millikin had seven.

The Vikings will host the Kalkaska Blazers on Friday, December 20 at 6 p.m.

Freshman team wins opener 53-39

► 9th graders win at Harbor Springs to start the 2002-03 basketball season

The Grayling High School freshman boys basketball team started its season with a 53-39 victory at Harbor Springs last Tuesday.

"We really played with a lot of defensive intensity," said Coach Joe Mau. "The boys worked very hard and executed offensively with discipline and poise. This was a great start to our season."

Three Vikings reached double figures in scoring on Tuesday: Reagan Schmidt had 16 (with eight steals and five rebounds), Zac Baker scored 12 (with three steals and seven rebounds), and Eli VanNuck finished with 12 (with six steals). Zach Dean led the squad in rebounds with nine. He also had six points and four steals.

The freshman team will host Bay City John Glenn at 4:30 p.m. on January 3.

Federal Consumer Protection has confirmed the accuracy of these fuel saving claims.*

Device may increase gas mileage by 22%

BOSTON - National Fuelsaver Corp. has developed a low cost automotive accessory called the Platinum Gas Saver which is guaranteed to increase gas mileage by 22% while meeting all emission standards.

With a simple connection to a vacuum line, the Gas Saver adds microscopic quantities of platinum to the air-fuel mixture entering the engine.

Since platinum allows non-burning fuel to burn, the Gas Saver's platinum increases the percentage of fuel burning in the engine from 68% of each gallon to 90% of each gallon, a 22% increase.

Since unburnt fuel leaving an engine is pollution, this 22% of each gallon normally burns when it reaches the platinum of the catalytic converter.

Unfortunately, the converter's platinum burns this fuel in the tail-pipe, where the heat and energy produced from this fuel cannot be harnessed to drive your vehicle.

But when the Gas Saver adds platinum to the air-fuel mixture, 22% more of each gallon burns inside the engine so that 22% fewer gallons are required to drive the same distance.

After a five year study, the government concluded: "Independent testing shows greater fuel savings with the Gas Saver than the 22% claimed by the developer."

In addition to the fuel savings, the Gas Saver has received patents for cleaning out carbon and raising octane, making higher grades of fuel unnecessary for most vehicles.

Joel Robinson, the developer, commented: "We have sold a half million Gas Savers. To our surprise, more people buy the Gas Saver because it extends engine life (by cleaning out the abrasive carbon) than buy it to increase gas mileage or raise octane."

FEATURES

A LOOK AT OUR PAST FROM THE PAGES OF THE AVALANCHE

23 Years Ago December 13, 1979

The first nine fiscal years of the 1979-80 decade have seen a considerable growth in the physical assets of the City of Grayling.

The year 1971 saw the completion and beginning use of the sewage lagoon.

1972 was the year in which a major start was made on our street construction program.

In 1973, the construction of the Industrial Park was completed.

1974 was the year construction of a new $55,000 five bay fire station was completed.

1975 was a planning year. A good deal of time was expended in gathering and assembling data for our E.D.A. application concerning the Water System Improvement.

The years 1976-1978 saw the proposed water system improvement project completed.

An extensive training program which began in October of last year ended this week when Crawford County Ambulance Attendants were awarded Emergency Medical Training Technician licenses by the State of Michigan. State law now requires that attendants possess a valid E.M.T. license to engage in road duty.

Among the E.M.T. graduates were Pat Kucharek, Jim Gray, Mahlon Riker and Mike Hauxwell. County Commissioners reported that the projected financial deficit for 1979 will amount to $67,400.

Top Viking gridders were singled out for special achievement and received recognition at last week's football awards dinner. Receiving awards were John Juntilla, Jerry Lucksted, Joe Mahaney, Todd Dunschley, Bill Lucksted, George Bindscatel, Terry Lucksted, Tim Jones, Vern Westervelt and Rusty Shepard.

The Grayling High Matmen opened this year's wrestling season with a 18-54 victory over Boyne City.

Earning points for the squad were: Steve Sauve, Tim Jensen, Dave Pettit, John Solomonson, Burt Partello, Tim Ferrigan, Duane Bloos, Jeff Ashton, Tim Jones, Barry Coty.

Hope College Junior Steve Olson of Grayling was awarded his varsity letter in golf. The award was made following conclusion of the fall sports session.

46 Years Ago December 13, 1956

A ski tow will be in operation this weekend at the Grayling Winter Sports Park providing that the weather cooperates. On Saturday, December 22, the whole park will be ready for full and complete operation.

The City of Grayling announced the annual Christmas decorating contest. A total of 10 prizes will be offered to both business places and homes, City Manager Russell Carlson has announced.

Weather permitting, the entire Grayling High School choral group will present a twenty minute program of Christmas carols in front of the Grayling State Savings Bank. There will be about 60 students taking part, under the direction of Mrs. Roy Milnes, director.

Twenty seven students from Crawford County are among the 3,530 enrolled for campus courses this fall at Central Michigan College. Among the students from the county are: James A. Madill, Hans A. Andrews, Joanne M. Andrews, Arvelle E. Armstrong, Marvin N. Bielski, James L. Bond, Frances L. Cady, Carolyn J. Deyett, Elmer L. Fenton, Laura T. Giegling, Leota C. Harrod, Elery R. Horning, John R. Jackson, Barbara N. Johnson, Roger L. Kessler, Billy J. Kinkert, James M. Klein, William R. Klein, Robert R. Lovely, Robert J. Luter, Derek E. McEvers, Richard G. Reava, Sally J. Smith, Katherine C. Smyth, Mary J. Wakeley.

The Frederic High Eagles currently leading the Antrim County D League easily rolled over a weak Rapid City team by a 67 to 19 score. The Eagles winning their fourth straight conference game seem to be on their way to a conference championship.

69 Years Ago December 14, 1933

East Jordan's veteran team won a 16-13 decision over the Grayling

High School basketball team in an excellent exhibition of the court game last Friday night. In the preliminary, the Cohen-coached reserves won from Grayling's Cubs by a count of 30-14.

The Grayling A & P Store, having lost in a coffee contest to the Gaylord A & P Store, entertained the latter's force at a banquet at the Wayside Inn at Lake Margrethe.

Six hundred seventeen men and women have been registered in the village of Grayling and Grayling Township for the Head Tax. Two hundred seventy men and women in other townships have been registered.

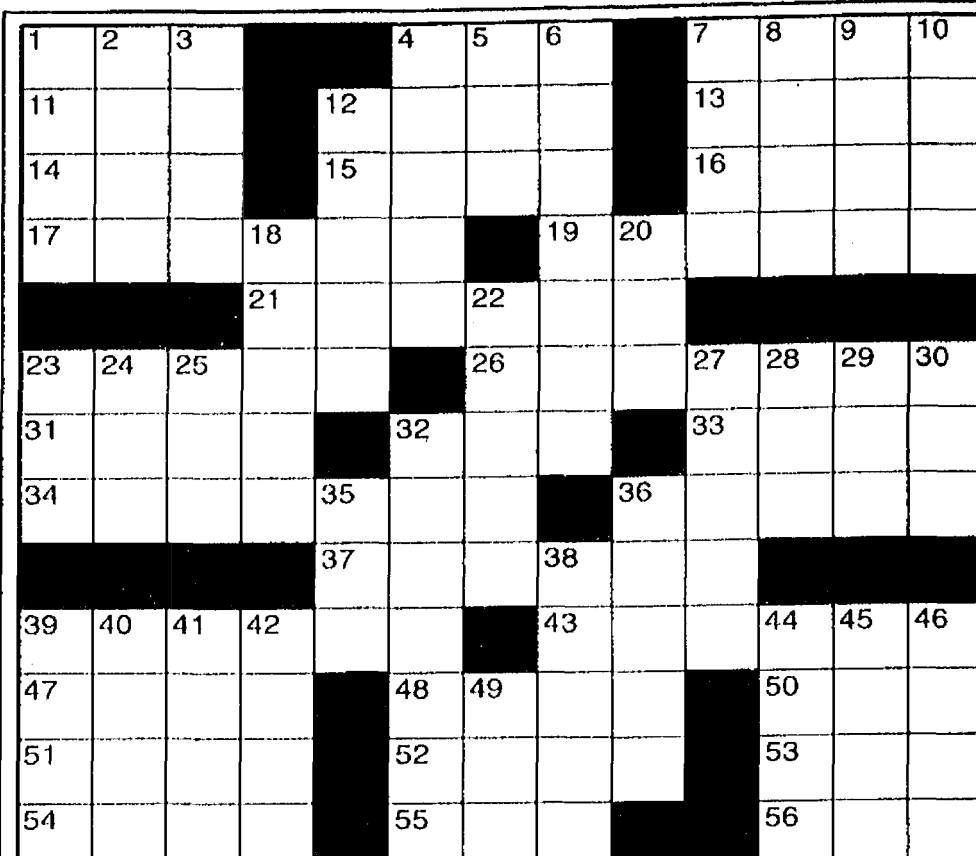

92 Years Ago December 15, 1910

Dr. C.R. Keyport, of Detroit College of Medicine, and senior House surgeon of Harper Hospital of that city, is now a resident of our village, and associated with Dr. S.N. Insley.

Petition for citizenship filed to be heard at the next term of circuit court of Crawford County, January 9, 1911:

Gustave Engel, Grayling; Lauritz E. Rasmussen, Grayling; Hyacinthe Charron, Grayling; Miles Andreas Johnson, Maple Forest; Archie Paul Charron, Grayling; Walter Hanson, Grayling; Edward James Brennan, Frederic; Frederick Haselwood, Ferguson, Deward; Charles Sidney Barber, Frederic; Peter Rasmussen, Grayling; Svend Holger Bernth, Grayling.

Hey Mortgage Lady!
 Ho Ho Ho...how can I get the good boys and girls that write to me here at the North Pole, the house of their dreams? Many want big yards for their new pets, a street to ride their new bikes on and a room of their own? Houses just don't seem to fit into my big red velvet bag very well and Rudolph always hurts his back lifting them.
 Santa
 Dear Mr. Claus,
 Every good boy and girl deserves a home of their own. I work hard to see that each person that comes to see me gets a chance to make that dream come true. Have the big good boys and girls stop by and see me. We can run through their Christmas list and see what we can do to make their dreams of sugar plum fairies and great big yards come true!

Uof M program targets prostate cancer, on quest for the best cure

This year, more than 180,000 American men will be diagnosed with prostate cancer. Another 35,000 will die because of it.

Now, for the first time, a national trial will compare two major forms of prostate cancer treatment to determine which is the most effective cure.

The SPIRIT trial, to take place at multiple prostate cancer centers across North America, will compare seed implant therapy to the surgical removal of the prostate, or prostatectomy, says Martin Sanda, M.D., a urologist and associate director of the University of Michigan Health System's Prostate Cancer Program.

The trial was developed through collaboration between urological surgeons and radiation oncologists at the University of Washington, Princess Margaret and Sunnybrook Hospitals in Toronto, Duke University and University of Michigan. It hopes to enroll 2,000 patients across the United States and Canada.

"We know both options are effective ways to treat prostate cancer," says Sanda. "What we don't know is how they will compare two, five or 10 years after treatment, in terms of their effects on survival and quality of life."

The prostate gland is found only in men. It's about the size of a walnut and is located below the bladder in front of the rectum. The urethra, the tube that carries urine, runs through it.

Cancer occurs when cells in the gland begin to grow out of control. Most of the time, prostate cancer grows very slowly. Occasionally, though, it can grow quickly and spread to other parts of the body like the lymph nodes or other organs.

Because it grows at different rates, how an individual patient's prostate cancer behaves is critical to determining whether he is eligible to participate in the study.

Those who are eligible to participate in the study will be randomly assigned to receive one of the two treatments.

Seed implant therapy involves inserting tiny radioactive seeds into the prostate. The first step, says Patrick McLaughlin, M.D., a radiation oncologist at the UMHS, is to take a picture of the prostate gland. "Since prostates range in size, we use the image to determine how many seeds should be implanted and where they should be placed."

Several seeds are implanted during an operating room procedure. Checks are done to make sure the seeds are in the right place. This procedure allows the patient to go home the same day, but several additional follow-up scans are necessary to confirm the seeds are indeed where they are supposed to be.

"The outcome of this procedure is directly related to the quality of the implant," says McLaughlin. "Good implants are very, very effective at curing the cancer."

In contrast to seed implant therapy, prostatectomy involves the removal of the prostate gland during a two- to three- hour procedure. After the prostate is removed, the bladder and the urethra are reattached.

"For most patients, this is the only treatment they'll ever need, and it's unlikely their cancer will ever reoccur," says Sanda.

Some of the common side effects of either prostatectomy or seed implants include erectile dysfunction and temporary urinary problems.

The SPIRIT trial won't just use cancer survival rates to determine the most effective cure. Researchers also will use confidential patient surveys to evaluate patients' quality of life and the presence of side effects after seed implant therapy and surgical removal of the cancer.

"We've come to a juncture where providing quality care goes beyond just curing the cancer," says Sanda. "Now, we want to do more. We want to cure the cancer and know the patient has a high quality of life and an outcome with which he can be happy."

Old St. Nick Had A Crick

T'was the day before Christmas, but there was not cheer. No jingle bells jingled, no sound of reindeer. The word had got out that Santa was sick, there'd be no friendly visit from a sick St. Nick. The people were sad; no gaiety sounded. For Christmas had come, but Santa was grounded, he walked down the street and what should he see? On a sign was printed, Dr. Jason K. Elk, D.C. Now, Santa was not one to like a new tactic, but all else had failed so he'd try chiropractic. In a very short time, to judge by the clock, He was in the adjustment room talking to Doc. It must be the hurry, the tension and all. I simply can't seem to get on the ball. Life used to be easy, just toys, guns and whistles. Now I have to dodge fall-out, spaceships and missiles. "And Doc, take a look at the size of this pack! Have you any idea what it does to my back?" Poor Santa was miserable, just barely able. With the help of the doctor, to get on the table. The doctor was gentle. Without fuss or tattle. He examined the vertebrae and relaxed the muscles. He spotted the trouble, and then with a click Started aligning the ailing St. Nick. And Santa felt aches and pains slipping away. In no time all he began feeling glow. And a healthy Kris Kringle was rarin' to go. As he went out the door, he threw the receptionist a kiss. Why, it has been centuries since he felt good as this! Then once more he shouldered the bagful of toys, His heart overflowing with true Christmas joys.
